Today's Program.....

Kathy Barden-Perlberg introduced today's speakers, Robby Griswold and Jitty Kim of Zingerman's, who spoke on the topic of Homegrown Entrepreneurship. Robby handles diversity and community giving responsibilities for Zingerman's while Jitty, the proprietor of San Street at Mark's Carts, is a budding entrepreneur in the process of joining Zingerman's Community of Businesses.

Jitty's experience at Zingerman's inspired her and a partner to start San Street—currently a cart serving Asian street food in Mark's Carts—with the goal of eventually establishing a brick and mortar restaurant. Zingerman's has a program for supporting and developing small entrepreneurs seeking to establish food-related businesses. This "Path to Partnership" can eventually result in the startup joining Zingerman's Community of Businesses where Zingerman's is part owner but managing partners like Jitty operate the company. She credits the support of Zingerman's, Mark's Carts, and the Ann Arbor community for giving her the opportunity to create a new business from nothing more than an idea. San Street's food is available at Mark's Carts and The Bar at Braun Court. Stop in and try it; today's samples were great.

Announcements.....

Super Interclub - September 11th, 8:30am at Glacier Hills. The speaker will be Shana Bussa, the Development Director at Alpha House. Alpha House is a non-profit in Washtenaw County serving children and their families. Their mission "is to provide temporary shelter, food and support services in a caring atmosphere of dignity and safety. More than providing just a bed and a roof for families, our goal at IHN is to support the families in securing and maintaining their own home". Here is a link to their website. <http://alphahouse-ihn.org/>.

2013 Magical Mystery Tour - AA Morning Edition’s annual bike tour. The September 21 event will occur at Rolling Hills County Park in Ypsilanti. All the information and registration is available on the event website: www.magicalmysterybiketour.com.

The club golf outing is September 17th and the Purple Rose Theater outing is September 20th but today was the last day to sign up for either event.

Martha Petroski has been nominated to replace the Board position of John Goff as he moves into the President-elect spot.

Next Week’s Menu: Baked Chicken

Fines and Happy Dollars.....

Fines: (describe each fine; put member names in bold)

Dale Leslie working in concert with fellow Spartan sympathizer Past President Kathy Barden-Perlberg proposed that anyone who had not left their stadium seat due to rain during the past weekend's football games be fined. Despite a chorus of nays and pleading rain-induced hearing difficulties, PP Barden-Perlberg ruled the fine approved. To restore harmony within the ranks, Nick Dever then proposed fining anyone who had not stayed in their seat for the full duration of the game—resoundingly approved.

Happy Dollars: (describe each happy dollars item; put member names in bold)

Bob Carr was happy for his recent trip to France with wife Jeannette for their 52nd anniversary. Dale Leslie happily reported the August 6th birth of a new granddaughter. Kathy Stroud was pleased to throw $10 in the pot on behalf of the Hospitality Committee for forgetting to announce Evans Koukios' upcoming surgery. Al Gallup happily one-upped Dale Leslie with a new great-grandson. Tom Dew was happy to report his wife's retirement as of today. Ron Williams was pleased to share a couple of unusual obituaries. Dick Smit was happy for UofM's football success and for a great inaugural tailgate at his new home. Jim Kane was happy to have enjoyed the Detroit Jazz Festival, Dancing in the Streets, and a family picnic. Joe Medrano was happy for UofM's victory and his granddaughter's graduation from cosmetology school. John Dahl spent a Happy Dollar urging all members to submit their "Opportunity to Serve" surveys soon. Clar Dukes happily relayed to story of Tom Fagan and the wrong hat. Harry Cross was happy to continue the odd obituary theme. Fred Sanchez happily or not expressed his concern over MSU's eleven punts. Garry Donner enjoyed selling a game on the way to Kiwanis today. Bob Johnson was happy to announce a new grandson born in Portland, Oregon; and told us he is having trouble disposing of Canadian coins received at the sale; so if you're going to Canada, see Bob. Finally, President Mark Wishka was happy to be headed to "Drag Week" in Bowling Green, Kentucky—five dragstrips in five days; what could be better?

Hospitality Information.....

Paul Klinger had a heart attack three weeks ago but is apparently up and about. Mike Barrett continues his recovery from a fall and is undergoing physical therapy. Gene Glys-son and wife Marie are at Glacier Hills and dealing with cancer treatments. Gene hopes to return occasionally to Kiwanis meetings and at that time would like some assistance with transportation. Evans Koukios will have surgery this Wednesday.

Stuff you should know.....

Kiwanis History.....

The first Kiwanis motto, “We Build,” was adopted in 1920. It was proposed by Roe Fulkerson, first editor of Kiwanis Magazine. “God inspired me to write those two words—We Build,” Fulkerson said. “I am prouder of them than any other accomplishment in my life.” That accomplishment served as the Kiwanis motto for 85 years. A bronze bust of Mr. Fulkerson is on display at the international office in Indianapolis.
