Today's Program...

Today's speaker, introduced by John Goff, was John Beilein—coach of a school-affiliated men's basketball team of some renown that plays in a sports center near the corner of S. Main Street and E. Stadium Boulevard. Mr. Beilein and his team were apparently familiar to many, as the large crowd of Kiwanians and guests greeted him with a rousing round of Huzzahs! and Goblues! Graciously accepting these laurels, the coach proceeded to regale the assembled throng with tales of his team's past and prospective exploits. The attendees were pleased to learn that this year's players are a group of fine young men of good character and high aspirations who adhere to the team's five core values: Unity, Passion, Appreciation, Integrity, and Diligence.

Assuming a successful season, these local round-ballers hope to compete in various regional and national tournaments, honing their skills and bringing honor to themselves and their school. However, the coach noted before that happens they will need to get past some feisty lads in East Lansing on January 25th and again in Ann Arbor on February 23rd in contests promising not only healthy competition and good sportsmanship, but also the added excitement of intra-state rivalry! Visit <http://www.mgoblue.com/sports/m-baskbl/mich-m-baskbl-body.html> for more information on this interesting team. Thanks to Coach Beilein for taking time to speak to Kiwanis today!

Announcements...

Interclubs – Dave Drake announced that there will be a super interclub at Ann Arbor Western on Tuesday, October 29th. Western meets at the Noon at the Bistro restaurant and the speaker will be discussing the War of 1812.

Administrative Manual – John Bassett has completed the update of the Administrative Manual and it is now posted in the members-only section of the website. Take a look; and remember to use the new password.

Remember, Circle K is hosting its annual Service Day from 8am Saturday, November 16th to 8am Sunday November 17th. In coordination with many other UM student groups, Circle K members perform 24 hours of community service for many organizations in the Ann Arbor area. Last year Circle K hosted more than 140 service projects and worked with more than 50 organizations. Circle K would love to have our members volunteer with them on Service Day this year. Please use the following link to sign up for projects: <http://mcirclek.org/serviceday/>.

Meetings:

The Eliminate Task Force meets after next week's meeting.

Fines and Happy Dollars...

Fines:

Lynne Lande, honoring today's guest, proposed fining anyone at a table without at least one person named John – passed. Jeanette Okuley moved a fine on anyone not a fan of UM Basketball – passed easily.

Happy Dollars:

Happy Dollars—deferred until after the speaker's remarks today—but happiness still prevailed. Bob Carr was happy for his recent trip to national parks in Utah; the Feds closed them but the state re-opened them so it all worked out. Jim Couch was happy to have brother Jack present and noted Jack was here that last time John Beilein spoke, and we had meatloaf that day too! Ashley Austin, Treasurer of UM Circle K, was happy for Kiwanis advisors Don Kossick, Bill Tasch, and Don Clewell. Don Kossick was happy in turn for our enthusiastic Circle K'ers. John Goff was pleased to be over a recent illness and for the presence of his business partner Larry Hastie, a long-time Rotarian. Happily, a polar bear did not eat Al Engerer during a recent trip to eastern Greenland. Jim Carey was very happy to see Sandy Eldon, Bob Barden, Sr., and Fred King at today's meeting, and he advised that a Mott dinner is coming up on a Thursday in November; more later. Harry Cross was happy to have known John Strand in junior high and high school and was appreciative of all he did for our club. Claire Dahl was happy to report Dave Hartman's trip to Washington D.C. with his 89-year old WWII vet mother on an Honor Flight was a great success—and they weren't arrested at the memorial! Fred King was pleased as punch that daughter Cathy Carr was present today as his guest.

Hospitality Information...

Kathy Stroud reported John Schenk is home after surgery; calls or emails are welcome. Bill Lynn has returned home to hospice care—LATE UPDATE: Sadly, word came on Tuesday that Bill has passed away. John Strand's memorial service this past Saturday was a joyous celebration of a life well lived.
