Today's Program.....

Kathy Barden Perlberg introduced our speaker, UM Marching Band Director Dr. John Pasquale. On June 1 Dr. Pasquale officially replaced Scott Boerma, who had resigned from the position in January to become director of bands at Western Michigan University. He received his BS degree at Texas Christian University and went on to obtain a doctorate in musical arts at the University of Oklahoma. He had served as assistant director of bands at the UM for the previous 5 years. John is "thrilled" to be working with what he believes is the "best band in the country" and a group consisting of "genius level" students. In addition to being Director of Bands, he holds a teaching position in the School of Music and has given lectures all over the world. Interestingly, he noted that only 7 of the 400 current marching band members are music students. The UM Band is the only such program in the country that has its own endowment, which he believes will soon be large enough to financially support most aspects of band activities including salaries and even student scholarships ("not first year students -- they have to earn it"). Planning for a football season begins in January and takes about 6 months to put together 8 shows. John is excited about the coming season, which he believes will be "incredible". He is proud to have recently brought on board the first female band staff-person in UM history.

Gordon Beeman noted that there have been 119 responses to the survey so far. Only two days remaining.

President Mark noted that Bill Lynn will no longer be able to fulfill his role as club representative to our sponsored Cub Scout Pack 131 due to illness. We are in need of a volunteer. Please contact John Dahl.

Fines and Happy Dollars.....

Happy Dollars

Bab Carr, for three great bands at three great institutions he's been associated with (Texas, Stanford and Michigan). Dave Hughes, for a new grand daughter. Ann Mattson, for surviving a broken hand, a broken washing machine, and numerous house guests. Dave Drake, for the new band director, his grand daughter who is in the band, and all the support for his wife who recently had surgery. Larry French, for multiple honors recently heaped on Kansas State University. Ron Williams, for the Buckeye's dotting of the eye and what it takes to get there. Jim Wight, for a recent Island visit. Don McEwen, for the new Kiwanis "item". Jim Kane for his fantastic purchase of a Tiger visor at the recent Saturday sale. Dale Leslie, for the MSU Marching Band (if not the best, one of the best). John Dahl for the Wisconsin Marching Band (if not one of the best, the best). Fred Sanchez, for the mysterious sound of the UM Marching Band while visiting the Virgin Islands.

Fines:

Nick Dever proposed a fine on Dale Leslie for not knowing what colors to wear today. Don McEwen proposed an amendment saying everyone should be fined. It was not clear if the amendment or the original proposal passed or not. Dan Dever proposed a fine on Don McEwen for collecting fines from people who had not been fined and proposed that all of Don's post-extortion efforts be legalized. It passed.
