Today's Program.....

The program was introduced by Claire Dahl. The speakers were Ian Sullivan and Ian Pudley from the University of Michigan Solar Car Team. The two team leaders gave an interesting presentation on the history and current events for the UM Solar Car Team. This is the largest non-athletic student organization on campus (150 members and 1200 alumni) and has an annual budget of approximately 2 million dollars. They build a new solar car every year and compete in both a national and international competition. They have won 7 of 11 national titles and have 5 third-place international finishes against "professional" teams. The team has two primary divisions, the Business Division headed by Ian Sullivan, and the Engineering Division, headed by Ian Pudley. The club is open to all interested students, but only dedicated workers are advanced to leadership positions. The students do not receive any pay, but some of the students can get academic credit. Participation on the team brings the students in contact with engineering and business leaders from around the world. The Solar Car is currently in Australia as the team prepares for the International Championship race in October. You can follow the team on U-Tube and on Facebook where the University of Michigan Solar Car Team is hoping to get 5,000 "likes" before the start of the International Championship.

Fines and Happy Dollars.....

Fines: Dale Leslie moved a fine on all lawyers and bankers because of Dick Benedek's malfeasance regarding the outcome of the UM vs. UConn football game. Nick Dever moved that the fine committee should be fined for not collecting fines, but Don McEwen altered the motion to fine everyone. Both motions passed.

Happy Dollars: Jeanette Okuley, Club Secretary was happy to have received a note from Carol and Wayne Young of the Florida Club where Bud Stein spent his winters; Dale Leslie was happy to inform us that Steve Kornacki will be the speaker tomorrow at Ann Arbor Western; Ron Gardner was happy for the great golf outing put together by Max Ziegler and his assistants; Jim Carey was happy for a golf outing up North with his son and happy to play golf with Lloyd Carr at a local golf outing; Max Ziegler was happy for Martha Petroski raising so much money for the 50/50 drawing at the golf outing and happy for a play he and his wife attended in Ypsilanti; Clarence Dukes was happy for the Shingles vaccine that saved him from a severe case of Shingles; Jim Kane was happy for attending his 55th high school reunion and a family reunion, both in the Cleveland area; Gary Donner was happy to give the spare change treasure he found in his car; Joe Medrano was happy for Martha Pertoski arranging the trip to the Purple Rose Theater; Don McEwen was happy for the steady work of Max Ziegler for the golf outing.

Max Ziegler, Jr. described a history of the Kiwanis Golf Outing that started as an exchange program with the Kiwanis Club in Blenheim, Ontario. The exchange program ended in the early 90's, but the Kiwanis Golf Outing continued as a club activity. A more detailed history of this event is planned for a future Newsletter. This year there were 80 golfers (26 from our club) plus 15 helpers from our club. Martha Petroski organized a very successful 50/50 drawing and the winner, Rick Wreshe of the Western Club, denoted most of his winnings to the Eliminate Project. Overall, the Club netted a profit of $1946. Max Ziegler received a standing ovation for his long-time service as organizer of the Kiwanis Golf Outing.

Dave Drake reported the Club successfully completed a round-robin of interclub visits this year. The goal for next year will be to complete two full round-robins. The next Superinterclub will be hosted by Ann Arbor Western on October 29. Our next Superinterclub will be November 11 with Jim Brandstatter as the speaker.
