Today's Program...

Surgical Advancement in 3D:

Sherry Springer introduced today's speaker Dr. Glenn Green MD an Associate Professor at the University of Michigan in Otolaryngology (Ear-Nose-Throat) – Head and Neck Surgery. He is located in Mott Hospital and is heavily involved in research on hearing and tracheal development in children; he is a leader in the invention and development of surgical techniques and devices for complex airway reconstruction. Along with Scott Hollister, Ph.D., he is a co-inventor of a 3D-printed tracheal splint. He is also involved in developing several other patents, for 3D-printed scaffolds for facial reconstruction for ear and nose defects as well as making devices to treat airway obstruction in children with craniofacial defects. He presented several stories of pioneering efforts to save the lives of specific children using new medical applications of 3D-printing. He passed around a couple of examples of specific splints and devices that his group had created.

Dr. Green has been recognized with numerous awards and was recently received at the White House for his outstanding work. He is clearly a leading player in the use of 3D-printing for clinical purposes. He noted that a major issue they are encountering is how to deal with regulatory matters involved in developing and producing "medical devices." These issues relate to dealing with the FDA and insurance companies. It was pointed out that their medical applications of 3D printing originated from the close access they have had to a pioneering UM engineering program that has been significantly involved in 3D-printing technology for a number of years in connection with the auto industry. Overall this was a very interesting and informative talk.

Dr. Glenn Green

Announcements...

- President Betsy noted the Kiwanian birthdays during the month of May, and the song was sung. She also made the following announcements:
 - ◇ There was expression of great enthusiasm for the success of last week's scholarship program, and all those who participated were greatly appreciated.
 - ◇ Betsy read a very nice letter from CAN (Community Action Network) thanking Kiwanis for the $1,000 provided by an anonymous donor.
 - ◇ She reminded us of next week's music scholarships.
 - ◇ The board meeting this month (May 10th) will be preceded by dinner at 5:30pm at Metzgers. Call Kathy Barden-Perlberg to reserve your spot.
 - ◇ An upcoming series of golf outings will occur at: Reddeman Farms Golf Club on May 26. Whispering Pines Golf Course on June 13. Polo Fields Washtenaw on June 13.
 - ◇ An Action Club administrator is needed. This involves a three-year term.
- Ann Arbor Young Citizen of the Year nominees as chosen by the Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation were listed in the May 8 Ann Arbor News. Two of the students on the list have Kiwanis affiliations. Taylor Elam (Skyline HS), recipient of the Charles W. Carpenter Memorial Scholarship last week, and Kelly Berton (Chelsea HS), a volunteer for the past year at KCW were among the nominees (see article here). We are very pleased to have them associated with our club. ~Bob Gray

Fines...

Bob Carr proposed that all those people whose name tags sank below table-level making them an unknown entity be fined. It passed. Dan Dever countered by proposing that exceptions be made for those people whose shortness in stature made it impossible to have their name tags visible. It passed.

Happy Dollars...

Garry Donner for his grandson's wedding over the weekend. Fred Sanchez for everything he learned in all of Lee Bachman's shop courses when he was in high school. Joan Masters for being rescued from a flat tire on her bike on her way to the meeting last week. Clarence Dukes for getting home from the hospital and the call from Fulton Eaglin telling him that he had become president of his local Kiwanis Club. Ken Hillenburg who is happy to be back. Joe Medrano for the Big Ten championship won by the UM women's softball team. Bob Snider for being back from Florida after which he was declared legally blind, surrendering his drivers license after 78 years of driving having received only one parking ticket and one for speeding. He was also happy for his son beginning to make some progress in recovering from a serious stroke; he is determined to see him walk again. Dan Burroughs re-emphasized next week's Music Scholarship Program. He also noted the upcoming performance of "Measure for Measure" a week from this Saturday at 7:30pm at Hill Auditorium. Harry Cross thanked all participants and sponsors involved in last weeks very successful Scholarship Program.

Stuff You Should Know...

Hospitality News:

Jane Talcott updated us relating to the passing of Lee Bachman last Monday. His funeral was held Tuesday May 10 at Nie's Liberty Road Chapel. A celebration of life buffet will be held at the Ann Arbor City Club on Monday May 16th at 5:30pm.

Fred King at Scholarship
Day Presentation May 4,
2015

More sad news for Kiwanis received from Bob Carr: Fred King passed away the morning of Wednesday, 5/11/2016, with his family around him, after protracted illness with cancer. As we know, his pleasure with Kiwanis was second only to his pleasure with his family. He will be dearly missed. Arrangements are pending.

Interclubs:

Dave Drake noted that the upcoming Interclub date in Ypsilanti has been cancelled.

Kiwanis Scholarships in the News:

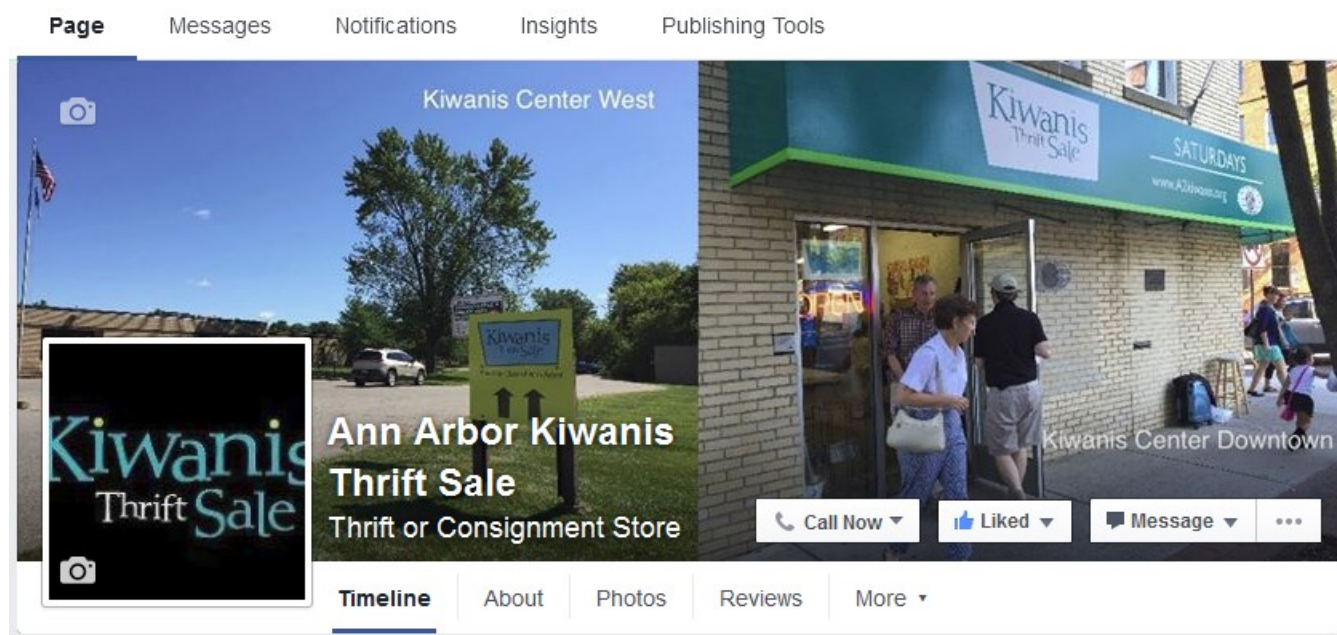

The Ann Arbor News featured our Kiwanis Scholarship Program online last Tuesday as part of their daily top 3 stories, which is an online feature. It included the group photo and all of the students names and the total number and amount of the scholarships. We linked that article to our Facebook and Twitter accounts and then individual folks "liked" the articles resulting in it being posted more widely for several days. ~Alan Burg
