TODAY'S PROGRAM...

Black History Month

Dr. Larry Lee Rowley

Carter G. Woodson and the Idea of Black History

Larry L. Rowley, Ph.D.
LBMC Associates

Today's speaker was Dr. Larry Lee Rowley speaking about the importance of Black History Month. Doctor Rowley was formerly on the faculty of the U-M and is a fraternity brother of President William. The objectives of Black History Month are to preserve the past, protect the present, and prepare for the future. Black History Month was originated in 1926 by Carter G. Woodson, a noted African American historian, scholar, educator, and publisher. Dr. Woodson was the son of slaves and the second black to receive a doctorate from Harvard. February was chosen to coincide with Frederick Douglas' and Abraham Lincoln's birthdays.

Dr. Rowley said that our heritage and diversity are strengths of our country, but we are facing both internal and external challenges. Dr. Rowley recommended two books for those interested in learning more about the topic. They are What is African-American History? by Pero Gaglo Dagbovie and The Mis-Education of the Negro by Carter G. Woodson. Dr. Rowley then achieved a lifetime objective when he received a genuine Kiwanis coffee mug.

- Maintaining Perfect Attendance—In an effort to reduce Bob Gray's Kiwanis work load (and, of course, it won't work; he will just take on more tasks), as of October 1, 2018, Chris Winkler <cbw@umich.edu> has taken over the record keeping and accounting for determining each member's years of perfect attendance.

Much of the needed data can be gathered without your participation. Regular meeting attendance and sale-and-vouchers participation are obtained through the iPad sign-in devices. Meals-on-Wheels participation is available through the monthly scheduling email. Participation in some of the club's special activities is available through our on-line sign-up system, SignupGenius. Attendance at regular board meetings and the granting of leaves-of-absence is available through Sec. Kathie.

However, members interested in maintaining perfect attendance should self-report other activities to Chris. You should self-report attendance at committee meetings, attendance at other club's interclubs, participation in international, district, or division meetings, and most special events. Information on maintaining perfect attendance can be found on page 4 of our Membership Digest.

FINES...

It started when Dale Leslie accused Dan Burroughs of taking the last two cookies, and Dale felt that all members of the education community should be fined. Dan performed a thorough analysis of his tray and reported that no cookies were present. A semi- friendly amendment was proposed that all who had taken cookies should pay and that crummy motion was passed.

HAPPY DOLLARS...

- ☺ Bryce Babcock was happy that his daughter-in-law is now a citizen of the U.S.A and for our cookies and other desserts.
- ☺ Retired meteorologist Bob Snider reported that Michigan was recently colder than Alaska and he was excited to be with us.
- ☺ Dale Leslie ran into former Kiwanian Andy Koran who says hello and can be contacted at bluetop@umich.edu.

- ☺ Lynne Lande was pleased that Drake Garner found us and is checking us out, and glad to be back after injuring her elbow while traveling in Scotland.
- ☺ Skylar Gleason was excited about a successful Circle K event and now has to dress for Kiwanis and her dance class.
- ☺ Claire Dahl enjoyed interviewing a 97-year-old Rosie.
- ☺ Joe Medrano celebrated victories of the U-M men's and women's gymnastics teams, and for being in Mexico during the recent polar vortex.
- ☺ Jim Carey had volunteered at a Special Olympics event and was impressed with the accomplishments of the participants.
