CLUB OF ANN ARBOR

Volume 11, Issue 8

November 25, 2019

TODAY'S PROGRAM... HONORARY MEMBERS

It comes with the territory that our four colleges and universities share in the evolution of outstanding local careers in education. Joyce Hunter, installed as an Honorary Member of our club on Monday (11/25), has vitae that show her unique expertise at all levels of education from the classroom teacher through the appointments as a school principal to the Balas Building office of the Ann Arbor Public Schools as an administrative leader.

Sponsor Garry Evans, new Honorary Kiwanis Member Joyce Hunter and Jerry Brown, emcee for the Induction

Garry Evans, club member and Hunter's sponsor for the prestige Kiwanis membership, summarized her career. "Joyce is a problem solver. Her creative programs to address diverse issues is renown. From DaNang, Vietnam to the campuses of Western Michigan University, to MSU and U-M, to the Ann Arbor Public Schools classrooms to the administration in support of the area African-American Museum to developing a summer reading program to address the Achievement Gap, she quietly and effectively leaves her imprint." Ole' Editor asks, "How have we missed honoring Joyce in previous years?" She and her former education colleague, club member Al Gallup, were a noteworthy pair of much-admired administrators at the AA Huron HS. What professionalism! What prestige! Local Education and Educators: a "Quality of Life in Ann Arbor." Two additional 2019-2020 Honorary Members, Neel Hajra, CEO, of the Ann Arbor Ypsilanti Community Foundation, and Rev. George Lambrides, former Chaplain at U-M Medicine and the co-founder of the Ann Arbor Ecumenical Council will be installed at a future date. Welcome!

ASSIGNMENTS FOR THE COMING WEEK...

No Vouchers this week due to Thanksgiving. Be sure to contact Ellen Webb with dates you'll be available to help in Jan, Feb and March 2020.

PLEASE HELP!

We need your help in Sorting and Testing! With Mike Birkle out after knee surgery and many sorters fleeing this Michigan weather for sunny Florida, we have a back up of items to be tested and to be sorted and stocked on shelves for purchase. It's quite simple and no experience is necessary. Contact Sonia Peterson if you're available to help. You can also stop by the KC if you find you have some free time, even if you aren't on the schedule.

GUESTS AT OUR CLUB...

Fred Sanchez proudly introduced his lovely family who traveled from California to join in the celebration of Thanksgiving Day. Federico Sanchez II, Christine Nishimoto Sanchez and their children, Federico Nishimoto Sanchez and Rio Nishimoto Sanchez. Just think - all those future joke tellers! =;-) I think I can label these three guests as potential members: J. Chapman (L. French), Dr. Ken Dill and Chris Fannon (both hosted by George Gilligan). Elissa Benedek, wife of member Dick, was also a guest. Dick fell recently and the result is some soreness, but he is ready for the next Ann Arbor-Dexter Run (he encourages the runners).

HOSPITALITY...

Jim Wanty, the grandson and son of late club stalwarts, James J. O'Kane, Murray Wanty and Hugh Wanty, is set to undergo hip surgery. Jim was a tuba player in the Central Michigan University Marching Band. "Fight, Central down-the-field!" I digress. Mitch Goodkin was back in the saddle at our meeting; past president Mark Wishka was back with us. Prudy Dittmar remains in recovery mode following her surgery. And in the holiday spirit, a reminder about our shut-ins- members, spouses and club friends who enjoy a Kiwanis member contact by person, card or telephone. See December hospitality chair, Lynne Lande for a name of a person who would enjoy a contact over the holidays. Lynne Lande - lynnelande@me.com; 734.649.0583. And thank you, Lynne, for performing this valuable service!

ANNOUNCEMENTS...

♦ Tuesday, December 10th, is the day when toys arrive from the North Pole. Thank you, Santa! A crew plans to gather from 3-4:30 P.M. More hands make for lighter work! See Max Ziegler if you can help create Toyland - antiquesz@aol.com; 734.649.3979.

Garry Donner

♦ Speaking of toys: Garry Donner donated some toys to auction for the Salvation Army Bell Ringing Project. When the dust settled: $165 was raised by toying around. A tip of the hat, Garry!

♦ Jim Carey said our annual wrapping presents party project at the Mott Children's Hospital store is coming soon! Can you help? Jim's contact information: 734.717.5591; jcar-ey@provide.net

♦ Garry Evans reminds Kiwanians that Salvation Army Bell Ringing time is Saturday, December 21. Contact Garry for more information on singing up. mar99gar@gmail.com

FINES... Fine were proposed and fines were paid, Keep those fines coming!

HAPPY DOLLARS...

☺ Past President Larry French ($10) continued our education of illnesses of the eye with the medical explanation of his diagnosis.

Again, it's the lack of coordination between his eye muscles and the components of the eye. Larry, our thoughts and prayers are with you, my friend

☺ Fred Sanchez praised the latest U-M victory on the gridiron

☺ Dan Burroughs was happy about earning our WCC certificate

☺ Peter Schork was in praise of Bill Robb and his numerous contributions in keeping our computers operating and in the development of our security camera system (standing ovation). See the report of the committee below and a summary of scheduled updates.

☺ Peter also said Steve Maten, a loyal volunteer, is the new supervisor of the Kiwanis Center receiving/shipping dock during Thrift Sale hours. Hooray!

☺ John and Claire Dahl celebrated their 49th Wedding Anniversary with family in Chicago

☺ Evan LeRoy and his family were on a five-hour road show to Wisconsin for a wonderful wedding

☺ John Dahl admits he's a legendary grouch and praises the oft-used phrase, "I had fun once, it was terrible!"
