TODAY'S PROGRAM...

Women's History Month and the Girl Scouts

President William introduced our speaker Janice Amin, from the Girl Scouts Heart of Michigan. William mentioned that he sought out Janice, whom he knows from church, to speak during Women's History Month. Janice showed engaging slides of Girl Scouts having fun, learning leadership skills, building curiosity, connection, and the ability to take action on their own behalf and on behalf of the community at large.

Pres William

Janice Amin

Janice Amin shared many statistics... among them: all female astronauts have been Girl Scouts; five of the six female Governors elected in 2018 were Girl Scouts. All female Secretaries of State were Girl Scouts. 50% of women business owners were Girl Scouts. Less encouraging statistics: only 4% of CEO's are women; women still earn $.79 to each man's earned $1.00 for equal work. The amount African American women and Latina women earn is even a smaller proportion.

Janice Amin also talked about the messages from our culture that re-enforce the image and role of women as primary caregivers and homemakers whether or not they are employed outside the home. Media messages idealize beauty over character and competence. The good news is that Girl Scouts encourages girls to be all that they dream of being and provides experiences and training to help them reach their goals.

Editor's note: After the meeting, Claire Dahl shared that our club supports a special Girl Scout troop for imprisoned mothers and their daughters. They meet together at the prison and share activities. Kiwanis provides funds for these girls to attend Girl Scout Camp like any other troop. Thought you would like to know...

NEW MEMBER INDUCTION...

Past President Jerry Brown inducted our newest member, Drake Garner, sponsored by Lynne Lande. Drake is a "seeker", finding Kiwanis on our website, clicking on the Membership link and making contact with Lynne. Drake lives in Hartland on a family farm. He has four grown children. He drives to his office on the east side of Ann Arbor every day, where he sells commercial insurance for the Ann Arbor Insurance Company. He doesn't blink at driving from east to west to be at Kiwanis, and will be at the Sale this weekend, ready to work on the dock! Be a seeker yourself, find Drake and welcome him to Kiwanis!

HOSPITALITY...

Dave Hughes shared the news that Dick Brunvand, Past President and longtime friend of the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor, was hit by a truck while riding his bicycle in Florida. He is recovering at home. A card was circulated with best wishes from us all. Doug Hanton has moved into the Towsley Memory Care residence at the Chelsea Retirement Community. His wife Ann reported that Doug has not spoken for several months. Ann's email address is dahanton@sbcglobal.net.

Mike Dabbs was present today; a message of support and care for his wife Pam and for Mike was sent from the podium.

President William added that Ted Lindsay, former great Red Wings hockey player, died today. Ted Lindsay did not attend his own induction into the Hall of Fame, because in 1966 only men could attend. He said that if his wife and daughter could not attend, he would not either. He was a champion of women's rights. Read more about Ted Lindsay at espn.com.

ANNOUNCEMENTS...

- Secretary Kathie Wilder announced a Super Interclub in Chelsea on April 15. Details to follow.
- Larry Dittmar announced several upcoming outstanding concerts:
 - ⇒ Tuesday 5th AAPS Orchestra Night, previously canceled by snow, Huron High School 7pm
 - ⇒ Friday 15th U of M Symphony Band at Hill Auditorium at 8pm
 - ⇒ Sunday 17th U of M Women's Chorale at Stamps Auditorium 4pm
 - ⇒ Monday 18th Michigan Youth Band and Orchestra at Hill Auditorium 7pm
 - ⇒ Wednesday 20th U of M Concert Band at Hill Auditorium 8pm
 - ⇒ Sunday 24th Michigan Youth Jazz Concert at Stamps Auditorium

- President William read portions of a letter we received from Jane Thompson of Ballet Chelsea's Adaptive Dance Program. She said that a grant of seed money from Kiwanis allowed them to provide movement classes at High Point School and WISD Young Adults Program. The success of this program led to receiving a grant from the Ann Arbor Community Foundation to expand the ADP to the public schools and Center for Independent Living. A great example of how seed money can bloom into something so much greater.

Ballet Chelsea's Adaptive Dance Program (ADP) gives movement classes to residents ages 3 - 93 with a wide range of abilities taking exercise classes to those who may otherwise not have fitness programs available to them.

MEETINGS...

None reported.

FINES...

Editor missed the initial spark of a fine, but it spread to include attorneys, anyone who had ever had power of attorney, and finally, blew up to include everyone. President William was unable to hear any feeble objections. Participants included Dale Leslie, Dan Dever, Nick Dever and Garry Donner.

HAPPY DOLLARS...

☺ Kathie Wilder is happy when she receives the monthly Meals on Wheels delivery schedule from Mike Anglin and sees the names of Kiwanians who faithfully deliver meals and a friendly contact every day. She read the names of these folks and asked them to stand. Special thanks to Chris Winkler, who fills in wherever there is a gap.

☺ Chris Winkler had his own dollar to encourage others to help with Meals on Wheels; we need five more helpers. Contact Chris or Mike Anglin for more information and to sign up.

☺ Cliff Sheldon was happy for a good time with Ann and Jim Mattson in Florida, and for meeting up with Dave and Judy Bell at the movies and then at a Kiwanis meeting, creating a Florida interclub!

☺ Luke Panning was pleased to present two preemie quilts made by his mother, and to announce one more concert: the RFD Boys at the Ark this Saturday, joined by one un-named but happy fiddler.

☺ Dave Drake was pleased to have another Drake in the club, and is looking for a partner to deliver Meals on Wheels because his regular partner Marilyn is under the weather.

☺ Jim Meretta announced that Measure for Measure will be singing with the Ann Arbor Concert Band at Hill Auditorium on Sunday March 10 at 2pm. Jim also let us know that the Cub Scout Pack we sponsor will be holding its annual Pinewood Derby at the Kiwanis Center this Saturday.

☺ Jim Carey added to Pres. William's tribute to Ted Lindsay, saying that Ted Lindsay, a Canadian, was instrumental in developing American hockey players by establishing the Amateur Hockey Development Program in our country.

☺ Mike Dabbs reminded everyone about the new Kiwanis Finish Line Scholarship Program, and encouraged members to donate scholarship money, which will be matched by collaboration of the Eleanor and Ray Cross Foundation, the Smith/Gray Scholarship Fund, and the Hillenburg/Burg Fund. Mike thanked the Kiwanians who have worked hard to improve and update our scholarship program: Dan Burroughs, Harry Cross, Claire Dahl, and Peter Schork. (Pledge form on page 4)

☺ Sue Dailey reported a happy outcome of a bad event: her car was stolen in Ann Arbor in January, but was returned in good shape last Thursday (with additional miles!)

☺ Joe Medrano proudly announced and demonstrated the unique property of this date: "March Forth".
