Today's Program.....

Today's speaker, introduced by John Sampelle, was Hilda Alcindor, BA, RN, Dean of the Faculté des Sciences Infirmières de l'Université Episcopale d'Haïti (FSIL nursing school). Ms. Alcindor also serves on the Board of Directors of the Haiti Nursing Foundation; a Michigan corporation organized for the purpose of supporting the advancement of nursing in the Republic of Haiti. The focus of this support is on nursing education, especially on the FSIL nursing school in Léogâne, Haiti. The FSIL currently has 104 nursing students enrolled, and three of those are sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor. Haiti has only about 2,500 hospital beds for a population of 10 million and the earthquake recovery has been slow. The need is great for professionally trained nurses and other lasting and sustainable aid programs. As Dean Alcindor said, the people need to be taught fishing, not given a fish. Information on ways to help the Haiti Nursing Foundation fulfill its mission can be found at www.haitinursing.org.

Fines and Happy Dollars.....

Fines:

Dale Leslie proposed fining Harry Cross and everyone at Harry's table due to Harry's nomination (by Dale) for the position of guest conductor of the Ann Arbor Symphony Orchestra—Passed. Chris Winkler moved to fine anyone who had not conducted the Symphony Orchestra—Passed despite a seemingly overwhelming symphony of nays.

Happy Dollars:

Dale Leslie was happy and proud of his Navy son whose helicopter detachment recently participated in a Nevada training exercise. John Sampsel was delighted to be leaving for a month in Florida. Dave Bell was happy to thank someone in advance for volunteering to sub for him at Meals on Wheels this week. Jim Kane happily thanked Claire Dahl for lining up an excellent roster of speakers. Fred Sanchez had a happy trip to NYC to see son and grandson; it was Federicos times three! Larry French was happy to be back from a Colorado ski trip with no injuries, and for Kansas State basketball success. Claire Dahl enjoyed a comedy performance by her son's friend at Royal Oak Music Theater and was happy the routine didn't cover her family. Martha Petroski was happy to say the Purple Rose Theater/Dinner trip is sold out. Don McEwen was happy for a great basketball game on Sunday but could have been quite a bit happier had Michigan come out on top.

Hospitality Information.....

Lloyd Kitchens reported Clar Duke's wife is home recuperating. Jim Krick was out in Chelsea for rehab but is now in assisted living at Towsley. Don Kenney is in #307 at Fairfax Manor (Geddes/Prospect area) and would very much like seeing visitors. Doug Hanton said that Gene Buatti continues his health battle and would enjoy receiving email notes from friends.

Stuff you should know.....

Lynne Lande reminded members that the upcoming speakers lists placed on the lunch tables were there to encourage members to invite a friend who might be interested in the program and, perhaps, membership. Lynne thanked Claire Dahl for her efforts in getting the future speakers list assembled and publicized. Speakers for the next four weeks are:
 March 18th - Ilene and Norm Tyler, Director of Preservation, Quinn Evans Architects
 March 25th – Brenda Bentley, Author, Huron River Walks
 April 1st – Matt Lee, Michigan Firehouse Museum
